The Bates college and mandolin clubs gave the finest musical entertainment last night in the opera house which has been heard here for a long time and deserved a large audience. Row after row of empty seats must have been rather disconcerting to the members of the clubs, but those present enjoyed to the limit the varied selections and recalled the young men again and again. Mr. Cole, the reader, rendered two selections, and the glees and mandolin ensembles delighted all, while the singing of "The Rosary" by the male quartet was the sweetest of music. Mr. Morrison pleased everyone with his violin solos and showed himself the master of the instrument, bringing out such sweet tones that the audience was hushed lest it miss one note. Besides these there were vocal solos, mandolin solos and selections by a string quartet. The closing piece, "Alma Mater" was given in a rousing manner and the audience felt like joining in the Bates college yell and giving three cheers for the twenty-eight young men who had given so much real enjoyment, and of the kind that remains.

There are a good many reasons why you can buy our suits and be pleased with your purchase. We have one of the best show rooms in Vermont. These three advantages should appeal to every lady that would be correctly dressed. Our prices are as low as our class of garments can be sold and a successful business carried on. Just as soon as any merchant begins to lose money you begin to lose a good place to make purchases. If we haven't just your idea in a garment we can pretty quickly get it for you. Let us try.
